(Witnessed and written down by Addie Rohleder)

For great provision awaits you, says the Lord—greater than you have ever experienced, greater than you have ever known. The windows of Heaven are about to be opened. Angels are literally standing ready to open up the Heavens. Spiritual beings are standing at the four corners of the earth. They are about to grab the four corners and shake them like you would a sheet, like a child would shake a piggy bank to get that last penny! All they are waiting for is the last command. The angels that are [told of] in [the book of] Revelation are waiting, standing, even though the people of the earth are mostly asleep.

There is a remnant [awake], there are a few, and those few will become many! They are scattered in the nations, they hear the Bridal call, [and] they feel the repentance and reconciliation that is needed for the nations. They are small in natural power but mighty in the spirit. They have nothing of the natural or the flesh because of the threshing floor they have endured. There is nothing that this world has to offer them that is of any value. In these next three months, beginning in May, they will be in the last trimester—the last three months of their pregnancy. I am going to call them to the forefront; it will be a sudden changing of the guard. Suddenly, what always was will be no more, and all will be new in the realm of the spirit. This is the beginning of the beginning! It is the beginning of the end for the world and its natural system. Suddenly, like the five virgins with oil in their lamps, they will hear the Bridal call and be moved into action. Their voice that was obscure and unheard will resonate through the Universe.

Be in expectation, steal away with Me, come and sit under the apple tree in My Orchard. Let me anoint you with precious oils, so, like Esther, you will be ready.

The birthings of whole nations will take place—be ready, be ready, be ready!

I see China launching an attack against another nation. I see Russia (USSR) already in negotiations for the same thing. The Lord has His hand over America; He won't let me see what is happening! All I can see is fire and lightning behind His hand—He won't let me see it.

I see the borders of whole countries being shifted, the whole earth moving—where there was land, it becomes water [and] where there was water, it becomes land.

I see black clouds of smoke [with] ashes in them blowing across a desert area. Maybe Iran? Black billowing smoke. I see leaders in high Presidential offices all over the world on their knees crying for mercy!

Then there is a long space of time. I see a leader, possibly at a university, walking a group of people (possibly students), saying, "This used to be the city of such and such; this used to be a city [but] now [it is] flat land."

I hear the word "Chernobyl," even greater, even more devastating.

Now I see some sea with molten lava coming out of it, I want to say like an underground volcano coming up out of the water.

I see a train taking people to an unknown destination; they are terrified, being persecuted and treated like animals, and I know they are Christians. I know they are saints of God.

I see lights in cities in the midst of darkness; there are altars of praise and worship. The prayers of the saints are going up, the prayers of the saints are going up, the prayers of the saints are going up, like a rain going up, like golden bullets going up.

I see an airplane crash—a great leader in the Christian world is going to lose their life very soon.

I see people fighting over food and fuel.

(Deborah crying) I don't want to see any more.

I see mass starvation. I see people crying, saying, "We were supposed to be gone; why are we here? I thought we would be gone by now."

I see a huge falling away from the Church and a huge influx at the same time of new people. I see the word "theology" in block letters, being smashed by a fist.

That's all! That's all I can do!
